

DEVELOPMENTS IN STEINHILL CASE CREATE A SENATION

Mme. Steinhill Has Been Arrested on Suspicion

A FRENCH INTRIGUE

Charges Made That Mme. Steinhill Is Mistress of Examining Magistrate

HIGH PERSONAGES INVOLVED

It is Openly Asserted That Lack of Energy Shown in Solving the Mystery is Dictated by Powerful Representation.

PARIS, Nov. 26.—Paris was in a state of intense excitement all day over developments in the Steinhill murder case and the sensation has made itself felt even in the chamber of deputies, where many members declared that they would raise the question unless the government undertook to probe the scandal to the bottom. Following Mme. Steinhill's confession last night that a man named Wolff committed the crime, Wolff denied any connection with the crime and later Mme. Steinhill weakened and said that if it was not Wolff, it was some one who resembled him strongly.

Then suspicion turned upon Mme. Steinhill and at 6 o'clock she was locked up in St. Lazare prison. The end of the day brought several fresh rumors. One was that Minister of Justice Briand had ordered an investigation of the open charges that Mme. Steinhill had been the mistress of M. Leidette, the examining magistrate and that Leidette had been instrumental in stifling the investigation. Chief Detective Hamard was credited with the statement that open suspicion had been cast upon Mme. Steinhill. Behind the interest in the crime itself, lie more or less thinly intimations that France is on the verge of a scandal involving high personages and the failure of the police to clear up the mystery has led to the open assertions that their

GAME WAS A FAST AND FURIOUS ONE

Uppertowns and High School Elevens Play to a Tie in an Exciting Contest

The Thanksgiving day football game between the Astoria High School eleven and the Owapupun team from Uppertown ended in the tie score of 11 to 11.

It was a game of smashing the line hard, of poor plays, of brilliant plays, and of one extraordinarily brilliant play that may have been more or less of a fluke.

The heavy weight of the Uppertown eleven told all through the game, and had it not been for the masterly activity and skill of their lighter opponents would have carried everything before it.

As it was, the game turned out to be a struggle between the heavier team, somewhat lacking in condition and systematic training, and the thoroughly well-coached and hardy youngsters of the High School, plus their well developed grit and pluck. The High School boys were proud of their part in the game. But it lack of energy is dictated by powerful representations. When Mme. Steinhill repeated her statement of last night to Chief Hamard today, she declared that Wolff was nothing to her and that she in no way was connected with the crime. She did say however that she hated her husband and that she had a lover in whose eyes she wanted to justify herself. "I hoped to justify myself before the man whose love I have now lost forever," she cried.

This man is said to be a French nobleman and in his identity is believed to lie the key to this romantic tragedy. The crime in question was committed May 31. Mme. Japy was murdered at the same time as Steinhill. The latter was a portrait painter. The assassination of the woman however was believed at the time to be merely incidental to the killing of Steinhill. Steinhill, his wife, and Mme. Japy lived together. Mme. Japy was bound and gagged and at first she declared she had been thus treated by three men and a woman, all unknown to her. Wolff, the man accused by Mme. Steinhill today, is a son of a woman formerly employed as cook in the Steinhill

FULTON TAKES A HAND IN SENATORIAL CASE

VISITS PRESIDENT-ELECT TAFT FOR THAT PURPOSE YES- TERDAY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The purpose of United States Senator Fulton, who visited President-elect Taft today was to take a hand in the Oregon senatorial situation.

Leading Republicans in Oregon are very strongly against the election of a Democrat to the Senate, regardless of the fact that in the recent primaries Governor Chamberlain defeated the Republican candidate. It is argued that under such a primary law a declaration in favor of Governor Chamberlain might at some time result in the changing of the complexion of the United States senate. Strong pressure therefore is being brought upon the Legislature to name a Republican. If Taft and Hitchcock took the position that a Republican should be chosen, it is said that this would go a long way toward accomplishing that result.

family. Political opponents of the government have been trying to make political capital out of the affair by seeking to force the exposure of a scandal connected with the mysterious death of Felix Faure, president of the republic in 1899. Although hushed up at that time, it was common knowledge that Mme. Steinhill was with Faure at Elysee palace when he died. Some of the Parisian papers did not hesitate to print what they term the story of Liaison. According to these stories Mme. Steinhill was greatly enamored of Faure. Persons who attended Faure's funeral told the Associated Press today how after the ceremony at the cemetery, Mme. Steinhill fell on her knees at the grave, took from her bosom a bunch of violets and threw them on the coffin. Then he said she prostrated herself on the grave passionately kissing Faure's portrait. Immediately after this according to the same authority, Steinhill began proceedings for divorce, but through the intervention of his family this suit was withdrawn. According to gossip, compromising papers of some political importance were surrendered and M. Henri Rochefort has charged repeatedly that others remained in the possession of Steinhill at the time of his murder. To journalists last night Mme. Steinhill declared the purpose of her attempt to fasten the crime on other persons was to clear herself in the eyes of her lover. The police do not place much reliance in her wild charges and believe the real story of the crime remains yet to be told. Consequently they released Wolff tonight as they did earlier Couillard, another suspect. It is stated tonight that Mme. Steinhill is definitely charged with the murder of her husband and Mme. Japy. The anti-Semite paper, Libre Parole charges Mme. Steinhill with having poisoned President Faure. The paper recalls that on the day of the funeral a writer on Libre Parole, who had seen the body, declared "All the skill of the embalmers was unable to preserve the corpse from the dissolvent action of a subtle poison. The journal continues by charging that Chief Hamard and Magistrate Leydette knew that Mme. Steinhill's arrest would lead to the exposure of the Faure scandal which had been stifled with difficulty for 10 years. The newspaper continues by saying that Faure was poisoned because he opposed the revision in the Dreyfus case.

LAMPHERE CASE IS NOW OVER

Jury Finds Him Guilty of Arson—Sentence Passed

WILL ASK NEW TRIAL

An Indeterminate Sentence of From 2 to 21 Years Imprison- ment Imposed

THE VERDICT A COMPROMISE

If Motion For New Trial Which is to be Made is Denied an Appeal to the Supreme Court Will be Imme- diately Filed.

LA PORTE, Nov. 26.—Ray Lamphere, charged with the murder of Mrs. Belle Guinness and her three children by setting fire to the home was found guilty of arson tonight by the jury.

Within five minutes after the verdict was rendered the defendant was sentenced to the state prison for an indefinite term of from two to 21 years, fined five years and disfranchised for five years.

Attorney Worden for the defense said tonight that a motion for a new trial would be made and should it be refused an appeal to the supreme court would follow. The supreme court is two years behind in its work so this case could not be reached until after Lamphere had served the minimum time of his sentence. Worden declared the verdict ridiculous.

"If he is guilty at all," said the attorney, "He was guilty of murder. He should have been acquitted."

just sufficient strength to regain his feet and while crouched in an attitude half protected Ketchell sent the right to the head four times in quick succession and almost pushed Papke over with a left hook. Papke dropped and fell forward on his knees, his hands supporting him and his head bowed as if in agony. Referee Kesh counted 11 as did also the time keeper and then advancing toward Ketchell threw the Michigan fighter's glove aloft. Papke still dazed seemed unable to realize his defeat.

After the fight he expressed dissatisfaction with the outcome claiming that he did not hear the count. He said he was able to continue the fight as he was not hurt. He stated he wants a return match. Ketchell said he anticipated the result, declaring that Papke's victory in the South was an accident. He says he is willing to fight Papke again.

KETCHEL REGAINS HIS LOST LAURELS

DEFEATS PAPKE IN THE 11TH ROUND OF AN INTEREST- ING FIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Stanley Ketchell regained the middle weight championship of the world today and reversed his defeat of last September, when he sent Billy Papke crashing to the floor before a well directed left swing that caught his opponent flush upon the chin. The end came in the 11th round.

Prior to this Ketchell had demonstrated that he was master of his opponent at any kind of fighting. Round by round Ketchell chose his opportunities and when an opportunity afforded, planted the right to the head or body, generally escaping without damage in return. Once during an aggressive moment they fell in the ringside and toppled through the ropes wrapped in close embrace. In falling, Papke had seized his opponent and force of his rush carried them clear off the platform, and over the heads of the spectators.

In the decisive round Ketchell came up fresh, he tapped Papke lightly on the jaw and then rushed him half way across the ring, planting two hard rights to the stomach. A moment later as they broke from a clinch, Ketchell swung left at three-quarters length, landing squarely on the point of the chin. Papke struck full length on his head rapping the floor with terrible force. He had

CORNELL LOSES.

Pennsylvania Closes Season Without Having Lost a Game.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—The University of Pennsylvania defeated Cornell in the annual Thanksgiving day football game on Franklin field this afternoon, 17 to 4. Pennsylvania thus closed the season without even once drinking from the bitter cup of defeat and tonight her followers are claiming at least equal rank with Harvard in the wide discussion as to which is the best football team in the east. It was Cornell's only defeat of the year and she fought hard to win. Pennsylvania did not overwhelm her opponent as she expected. However, except for the kicking department in the first half Pennsylvania at all times was Cornell's superior. The game abounded in open plays, long runs, and much punting. The playing of Miller at quarter for Pennsylvania was the feature of the contest. Once he got away for a 75-yard run and at another time secured a touchdown on the 48-yard run. His shooting of forward passes was also good.

OTHER FOOTBALL GAMES.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 26.—A hard-fought football game between the Carlisle Indians and the St. Louis University team today was won by the former, 17 to 0. The contest was a slow but interesting one the Indians being formed to uncover their best line of tricks to win over the stubborn defense of the St. Louis linemen.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 26.—One of the hardest fought football contests ever witnessed on Cummings Field occurred today between Idaho and Utah University and resulted in the 0 to 0. Though outclassed in punting, Utah managed to keep her opponents from scoring. In no time during the whole game did the ball go over through the failure to make the required ten yards. Fully six inches of snow was on the field when the game started.

SEATTLE, Nov. 26.—The University of Washington football team today won the championship of the Pacific Northwest by a brilliant 44 to 0 victory over Oregon Agricultural College.

MANIPULATION CHARGED IN TARIFF HEARING

OUT OF 25,000 MANUFACTUR- ERS IN U. S., 100 RECEIVE NOTICE TO APPEAR.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 26.—President Charles W. Van Cleave, of the National Manufacturers' Association today gave out a statement in which he asserts that out of 25,000 manufacturers in the United States only about 100 received notice to appear before the ways and means committee to give information regarding tariff revision. He asserts that not only were those invited given so short a notice that they could not prepare data, but questions put by leading members of the committee to these manufacturers who have appeared before the committee are calculated to call out answers asking for retention of present rates of duties or advances in them. He says that the questions are nearly always put "Do you not believe your present duties should be maintained?"

He says that as a result of this the eastern papers state that this selective coaching of the manufacturers who now have 30 per cent tariff on his product asks to have it advanced to 40 per cent. He says that one or two manufacturers who asked to have the tariff on their products lowered made Chairman Payne gasp. Cleave in a rather sarcastic manner mentions the enormous task of fixing the proper tariffs and calls attention to the fact that in arriving at its tariff rate, Germany had a com-

Hemery, with a German Benz, No. 8, was the favorite of the followers of automobile racing and took second honors. Wagner's victory was by the narrow margin of 56 seconds. Hemery was first to finish crossing the finish line almost five minutes ahead of Wagner. Youth and Superior Condition of the Oregon Boys Began to Tell in the Second Half When All Scoring Was Done.

PORTLAND, Nov. 26.—The Multnomah Athletic Club eleven, went down before the team of the University of Oregon by a score of ten to nothing in the annual Thanksgiving game between the teams. The scoring was done in the second half. The first half was Multnomah's by honors, the ball resting most of the time in Oregon territory. The half was without any particular feature, except the indignation created over what was ruled to be a piece of rough work by Pilkington, Multnomah's right half.

While the officials sent Pilkington out of the game and penalized Multnomah 25 yards, opinion seems to be divided as to whether Pilkington's offense was not by accident resulting from the awkward manner in which he was tackled by Pinkingham, the University left tackle.

In the second half the youth and superior condition of the Oregon boys began to tell. The ball was most of the time in Multnomah's territory. Well along in the half Oregon worked the ball to Multnomah's two-yard line and though the University came within an ace of suffering a setback by reason of a jumble of signals, when the players untangled themselves, the ball was behind Multnomah's goal line with Mains, the University half, right on top of it. Fullback Moulten kicked a goal making the score 6 to 0.

The ball had been in play again but a few minutes when the Oregon boys worked the ball to Multnomah's 42-yard line. At this point Moulten signalled for a kick from placement which was successful, adding four (Continued on page 8)
